

“When The Saints Go Marching In”

One of our neighbors is a 97-year-old Christian. He thinks the rapture will take place while he is still alive.

When we returned to the States permanently in the fall of 1993, someone asked me where we will be living.

My answer? "Denver."

"Why Denver?" he wanted to know.

"Because Denver is a mile high—and in the event of the rapture, I'll have a head start."

"I question the accuracy of your eschatology," he replied. "Apostle Paul says '... we who are still alive.... will not precede those who have died ...the dead in Christ will rise first.'"

Of course, neither he nor I were exact, because Apostle Paul continues, "... we who are alive will be caught up together with them [the dead] to meet the Lord in the air."

Oh, when the saints

Go marching in

Oh, when the saints go marching in

Oh, praise the Lord, I'll be in that number

When the saints go marching in.
